Lose It All

Monarch

I can't stop.
I tried before,
I don't know how.
I can't talk,
I lied before,
It's over now.Try figure out tonight,
That I will lose it all,
But it's easier to fall,
Into your catch,
To crawl into your mouth,
When all I need is to get out.Please don't speak,
Another word,
I beg of you.
I can't sleep,
I close me eyes,
And think of you.Try figure out tonight,
That I will lose it all,
But it's easier to fall,
Into your catch,
To crawl into your mouth,
When all I need is to get out.And I'm alone,
And I do not belong,
Here, with any home,
Now I know that you're coming home,
Now never lose nerve,
Never, nerve.Once more, I,
Have taken what's not been mine,
But I won't cry,
I kiss your face,
And wave goodbye.Try figure out tonight,
That I will lose it all,
But it's easier to fall,
Into your catch,
To crawl into your mouth,
I know it's over now.
It's over now.
It is over now.
Well, it's over now.
