

Littlest League Possible

Guided by Voices

Gonna have alotta fun
Gonna hit a home runIn the littlest league possibleGonna make a big splash
Don't have to talk trashIn the littlest league possibleThe most rudimentary division
Of competition
Where no worlds collide
To be the biggest fish
In the smallest pond
On the littlest island
Where I shall reside
Or keep banging it out
In the Texas league
And meanwhile after too much
And also from running too fast
You'd run out of gasBut that's not possibleIn the littlest league possible
