

Kaleidoscope (G.Brooker-K.Reid)

Procol Harum

Jostle, hassle, elbow bustle in a swirling rainbow tussle Caught and frozen, broken sheen now unites for one brief scene Lonely in the dark I grope
the key's in my kaleidoscope Confused faces change their places take up stances, exchange glances Lost in multicoloured hues there is no whole which I can choose Lonely in the dark I grope
the key's in my kaleidoscope
In one face, one moment's fusion realize the new illusion Clutching fingers break the puzzle
jostle, hassle, elbow bustle
Still out in the dark I grope
the key's in my kaleidoscope
