Liar

Megadeth

You take great pride in never having lived up to anything

Lie, steal, cheat and kill, a real bad guy

Your daddy is a wino, and your mommy is quite insane

From alter boy to sewer rat, you don't give a damnYour sister is a junkie, gets it any way she can

Your brother's a gay singer in a stud leather band

Your girlfriend's got herpes to go with your hep and aids

There ain't one person you know you ain't ripped off yetLook deep in the mirror, look deep into it's eyes

Your face is replaced, a creature you despise

But I know what you're made of, it ain't much I'm afraid

I know you'll be lying until' you dying dayMake up your stories, truth's so hard to say

Brain is numb and your tongue will surely dig your grave

Your mind is sickly from Alzheimer's disease

And decadence and debauchery killed your memories You're a liar, liar, everyone can see

Liar, liar, liar, it's all you'll ever be

Liar, liar, liar, it's what you mean to me

Liar, liar, liesStart trouble, spread pain

Piss and venom, in your veins

Talk nasty, breathe fire

Smell rotten, you're a liar

Sweat liquor, breathe snot

Eat garbage, spit blood

Diseased, health hazard

Scum bag, filthy bastardGreasy face, teeth decay

Hair matted, drunk all day

Abscessed, sunken veins

Rot gut, scrambled brain

Steal money, crash cars

Rob jewelry, hock guitars

Rot in hell, it's time you know

To your master, off you goYou're a liar

A fucking liar

Filthy liar

You, you, you fucking liar

Liar
