

Heaven Tonight

Yngwie Malmsteen

This feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonightLost in a dream in the arms of the night
Two lonely prisoners of our own device
Don't let me go hold on togetherYou wanna know if love can be real
Now I wanna take everything I can steal
Love on the line, it's now or neverWhy can't the night last forever?This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonightRun through the night down streets of desire
Burning my soul, my heart's on fire
Give up the fight, it's sweet surrenderWith trembling hands we reach for it all
Two desperate hearts waiting to fall
I need you now, now more than everWhy can't the night last forever?This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonightThis could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
If we just close our eyes
We'll be in Heaven tonightThis feels like Paradise
I see the world in your eyes
If we just hold on tight
We'll be in Heaven tonightThis feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonightThis feels like Paradise
We'll be in Heaven tonight
This feels like Paradise
Heaven tonight, you by my side
