Easy

People Corrupting People

Falling down is so easy
It was once my turn
Falling down is so easy
Now you watch and learn

I heard from someone you were better
And I hope and pray itâ€™s true
But then again, itâ€™s you
Some nights I sit stoned on the back porch
Think of all the stupid shit we used to do
The night you called me up from jail
Asked me for bail
What was going through your head?
Broke and all alone
I called your dad up on the phone
And this is what he saidâ€¦

Itâ€™s about time
Talk is cheap and times are tough
Itâ€™s about time
You boys think youâ€™ve had it rough?

Fling down is so easy
It was once my turn
Falling down is so easy
Now you watch and learn
(x2)

We have a hostile history
You mean a lot to me
I wish you meant it to yourself
We took our whiskey well
But the lies of which we tell
Had us drinking top shelf

Itâ€™s about time
Common sense is rarely there
But throughout time
My friend you know I will still care

Falling down is so easy
It was once my turn
Falling down is so easy
Now you watch and learn
(x2)

That night we spent so long ago
I wish I never let you go
I wish I said the words inside my heart
But you just tore it apart
With such a subtle simplicity
You took the pain right out of me
You took your hurt and let me be
Said itâ€™s so easy

Falling down is so easy
It was once my turn
Falling down is so easy
Now you watch and learn
(All we have is history, All we are, our memories)
(Itâ€™s so easy)

Lyrics Submitted by People Corrupting People

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/