

Dreams

House of Shem

Feelings that once were hidden and now expressed to you Days that once were stormy and now the brightest blues Times that were lonely and now are filled with your pleasure

Oh things that once were mine alone now things we will treasurecuz dreams that once we longed for are now are coming true

the love i once full was scarred (?)

i have now forever in you, yeahdreams, yeah (x 3) a dream come true dreams, yeah (x3)
oh yeah

a heart that once was broken can now finally mend a person once a lonely life can now call you a friend a night that once was cold is now comforting and warm fears that once were very real are now gone with the storm, gone with the stormcuz dreams that once we longed for are now are coming true

i have now forever in you, yeahchoruscuz dreams that once we longed for are now are coming true
the love i once full was scarred (?) i have now forever in you, yeahchorus my dream come true (x3)
oh when i look at you, oh you my baby its you
my dream come true (x2)
