Blue Moon Baby

The Cramps

Way down in Mexico
There's a crazy little chick that I know
In the honky tonk on the outskirts of town
Where the music is hot and the lights turn downBlue moon baby, yeah
Blue moon babyWell, she's sitting in the dark corner
With the skip that's wrap around real tight
She looks into your eyes and you realize
That you don't feel well and that wrong is rightBlue moon baby, yeah
Blue moon babyWon't you buy me a drink of tequila?
Won't you buy me a glass of wine?
Well, I can sit with you for an hour or two
Would you like a little piece of my time?Blue moon baby, yeah
Blue moon babyAlright, play the blues for meWell, blue moon girl will make you wear a purple heart
Blue moon girl will tear your heart apart
Blue moon girl, take your money as you can
Turn around and find another manBlue moon baby, yeah
Blue moon baby
