

Absolutely Nothing's Changed

Tina Turner

Absolutely nothing's changed This is my heart talking
It's time to face reality
This spell I'm under can't last much longer
Any fool can see You come here with your promises
But I remember all the lies
I bought the laughter, happy ever after
How could I be so blind, so blind? 'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
You play with my emotions
I'll live to fight another day
I'm bruised but I ain't broken, I ain't broken Now you say you're sorry
For everything you put me through
You wanna make up, I just gotta wake up
It's the same old you, the same old you 'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
You play with my emotions
I'll live to fight another day
I'm bruised but I ain't broken, ain't broken, oh, no, no Ooh, I've been dreaming but it's over now
Bad dreams are over now
I'm gonna rise up, rise above all the troubles and tears
I'm down but I ain't out Play with my emotions
I maybe bruised, I ain't broken 'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
At last my eyes are open
I'm gonna live to fight another day
I maybe bruised but I ain't broken, ain't broken 'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
Absolutely nothing
I'll live to fight another day
I maybe bruised but I ain't broken 'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
Absolutely nothing
I'm gonna live to fight another day
I maybe bruised but I ain't broken
'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
