Fill My Cup

Matthew Santos

Wake me up,when the rain's gone and fill my cup with alittle cream and sugar,I'll sober up when the pain's down and fill my cup with alittle whiskeyOh shame,shame on me,I broke my baby once againI messed up got alittle careless, lost your trust,now we got nothing, so tear me up with your guilt trip and fill my cup with something cold and bitterOh shame,shame on me,I broke my baby once again,yeah,Oh shame, shame on me,I broke my baby once again (oohh-oh-oh...)
