Tearing Through Me

JamisonParker

I spend more time
Trying to breathe
I keep my eyes closed
You're too far away from me
You're so far away from meI spend more time
Tracing your face
Wearing away my finger prints
You're so far awayWe could stay up forever
No one sleeps 'til my voice finds your ears
Your last kiss was something more like shrapnel
Tearing through meI spend more time
Speaking through wires
Living in circuits
You're so far awayWe could stay up forever
No one sleeps 'til my voice finds your ears
Your last kiss was something more like shrapnel
Tearing through meTearing through me, tearing through me
Tearing through me, tearing through me
Tearing through me, tearing through me
