

Thinking About You (feat. Jay Sean)

Hardwell

[Jay Sean:]

I wake up smiling every morning
Yeah, I don't mind sleeping alone
People ask me if I don't miss you
But I ain't been thinking about All the nights we've spent together
And how your skin felt on my skin
And I'm just calling to let you know
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about you Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you I go out every single evening
I drink a little bit too much
People ask me if I don't miss you
But I ain't been thinking about Nights when we went out together
When it was us against the world
No, I'm just calling to let you know that
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about you Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you [Hardwell (Jay Sean):]
I ain't been thinking about you
I ain't been thinking about you [Jay Sean:]
No, I'm just calling to let you know that
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about you Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you I ain't been thinking about you
