Scalding Hail

Cannibal Corpse

Flying chunks of hot debris rushing through the air
Vapors causing blisters eyes blinded by the glare
Clouds that shower death hell falling from the sky
Searing rain of molten rock, flesh begins to fryBurning fragments, steaming stones tearing through my skin
Lodging near my organs, I'm burning from within Parts of human bodies lay strewn on the ground
Survivors holding bleeding ears, deafened by the soundBlackened heavens down a mountain's weight
Of rock on top of us
Churning earth has somehow come to life
Rapid combustion spewing magma cracks apart the crust
Tornadoes of caustic steam ravaging the earthScalding hailCharred and battered victims crying to be saved
Falling on deaf ears the earth is now our grave
Devastating torrents acid drowns the land
No relief from scalding hail burning like a brandPeople shrieking as they die, pounded by the hail
Splintered shards, heated rocks stabbing like a nail
Millions have been slaughtered as the boiling torrent falls
Apocalyptic storm, judgment for us allScalding hail
