Ghost

Red Circle Underground

Wake up son your daddy's in the poorhouse,
he can't pay, so tell him what you want,
because he'll crawl away and call it evolution,
He won't survive,
He won't survive.

This gun talks, everybody listens,
the pain involved might change your mind.
It's a lonely way, so tell 'em what you want.
You won't survive,
You won't survive.

Ghost in the tower,
ghost in the house,
ghost in the water.
Take them back.
Take them back

My time breaks, fuck all your cancers,
Dealers done and left in charge,
It's a lonely way, pulling out your hair.
Cuz you won't survive,
you won't survive.

Ghost kid come, (hey) look out your sheets boy
There's yourself, you're the dead man's son,
But you know the way.
Know it like an answer.
Won't survive.
You won't survive

Ghost in the tower,
ghost in the house,
ghost in the water.
Take them back.
Take them back
