The Fire Breathes

Skillet

The fire breathes, the fire breathes
It grows and grows and seems to have no end
The fire breathes, the fire feeds
Search and search, consuming everything it seesIt lives inside of me
Burning, burning, burning, yeah, yeah, yeah
It lives inside of me
The fire breathesThe fire breathes, the fire breathes
The beauty in its violence brings me peace
The fire breathes, the fire breeds
It lives in hearts, causing strength to believeIt lives inside of me
Burning, burning, burning, yeah, yeah, yeah
It lives inside of me
The fire breathesThe fire breathes and I need
Life in this dead man to make me freeIt lives inside of me
Burning, burning, burning, yeah, yeah, yeah
It lives inside of me
The fire breathesIt lives inside of me
Burning, burning, burning, yeah, yeah, yeah
It lives inside of me
The fire breathesThe fire breathes
The fire breathes
The fire breathes
The fire breathes
