

Champion

Chronixx

Life has itâ€™s way
Of turning the grey skyâ€™s blue
But sometimes the sky
Come tumbling down on you
But of this one thing am sure

Jah, Jah, never give I more than what I can bear
Sometimes the road get dark and it feels like no one cares
Friends and family they are gone
But oily love a come

Cause I am a champion mi brother
Am a champion mi friend

Mama dry yo tears and move yo hand from yo head
Never wear a frown because Jah, Jah, no dead
Thrust in every word weh Selassie said
Leaning in Marcus wi lost yo faith
Cause sometimes the sky
Comes tumbling down on you

Jah, Jah, never give I more than what I can bear
Sometimes the road get dark and it feels like no one cares
Friends and family they are gone
But oily love a come

So all when yo hungry and edge eye teeth
I and I a stand up paw mi own 2 feat
Mi naw meck no trouble come get rid a me
Mi a fight it like a Champion Mohamed Alley
But that no mean I man a go do no folly
Rasta man a no satan likkle puppet dolly
Push on pon the straight weh narrow like a chally
A goodness and mercy a follow back a me

Jah, Jah, never give I more than what I can bear
Sometimes the road get dark and it feels like no one cares
Friends and family they are gone
But oily love a come

Jah, Jah, never give I more than what I can bear
Sometimes the road get dark and it feels like no one cares
Friends and family they are gone
But oily love a come
