Why

Elefant

Driving through the night
Using all the lights
Hiding in the stars above
I kiss you on the arm
I never meant to harm
The only girl I ever loved
That was long ago
Before I could say no
Whisper in my ear again
That today, I'll change
Why must I always choose
The highs over me and you?
I try and I try to change my old ways
Darling oh, darling
Your sweater on the stairs
Pretending you're still there
It's everything and nothing new
Another wasted chance
Save me one last dance
A final waltz for me and you

As we spin around
Why must I always choose
The highs over me and you?
I try and I try to change my old ways
Darling oh, darling
I'll never change
I'll never change
I'll never change
Driving through the night
Using all the lights
Hiding in the stars above
As we spin around
Why must I always choose
The highs over me and you?
I try and I try to change my old ways
Darling oh, darling
It's just too late
Why, why?

Why, why?
