Verse 1: Shaq who the hell is Shaq Attack you'd better read the paper treat me like Biz Markie you'd better catch a vapor I've got mad props so why would you exploit punch you in your face like that kid from Detroit really yo you'd better ask MC Hammer 'bout this bad mama jama tall kid with the hoopa hypa lipta-gramma watch out yo it's time for MC bashin' got more loot than my man Johnny Cash and I'm hard like a 360 twice jam ask Dr. Dre and Ed Lover who's the man I'm sure they'll say me brother please don't play me like a shrimp dunk it on your head then I'll point like Shawn Kemp don't need the drink crooked I juice to get loose my favorite cartoon is Bullwinkle the Moose I'm 'bout to sting you like rubbing alcohol yes yes yall call me Ed Jones cause I'm too tall put the rhyme between my legs then I'll score never mind a whore I wanna do a phat tour come freak the style that the big Michelle display get on the microphone and rip a funky track Verse 2: Phife it's the Phife and Shaq mission plus Shaheed's got the goods making rough daddy jams knocking harder than wood make ya boogie with the fly armstrong crew Phife Dawg and Shaq Fu this is how we do funky renditions there's no competition split mc's apart as if their group was New Edition make mc's hush stop look and listen it's hard to comprehend so they commence to reminiscing far from an amateur microphone damager end your whole career beat down your manager never was a herb kick you to the curb there's more to my attitude than the city of Johannesburg styles are mean but this year they're even meaner carrying chips on my shoulder so call me Sarafina gaurantee ?? martin pissin' and a fartin' mess around with this and you'll be on a milk carton mc's don't like me I say tough titties blow up the spot like my man from Jersey City people always askin' 'why is Phife so cocky?'

I gotta be good at something cause I can't play hockey you know the status and the status is live the first draft-pick for the label called Jiveyo Shaq, where ya at?

I'm over here

yo Shaq, where ya at?

Phife, I'm right here
