Same Old Story

Sugababes

Oh ho, yeah, yeah
You had love for me
You said that you'd give me everything
What's happening?
How could you lie how could you be so trifflin'
What's going on?
'Coz I thought that you where the only one
Don't even waste my time, oh ho, oh ho
It was a shock to see
Telling me lies disgusted me
You wasn't right for me
I've had enough of your lies
Trying to talk to me
Are you outta mind, do you think I was fine?
Don't even waste my time, oh ho, oh ho
I don't wanna hear, "I'm sorry"
Don't wanna hear the same old story
Whatever it ain't my problem
You ain't gonna waste my time
Baby, can't you see that I don't need you in my life
Please, can you see the sign
You ain't gonna waste my ti-time
You've been running games behind my back
Don't you realize I won't take that Baby, this is where you get of I'm moving on
Telling me the same old story
Everyday the same old story
Why you talking big for me
You ain't gonna waste my time
(Baby, can you see the signs)
Baby, can you see that I don't need you in my life
Baby, can you see the signs
You ain't gonna waste my ti-time
I don't wanna hear, "I'm sorry"
Don't wanna hear the same old story
Whatever it ain't my problem
You ain't gonna waste my time
Baby, can't you see that I don't need you in my life

Please, can you see the sign
You ain't gonna waste my ti-time
Same old story, same old story
Ain't my problem, yeah, yeah
