

Where Angels Play

Ian Brown

Come with me to a place no eyes have ever seen
A million miles from here where no one's ever been
 God-given grace and a holy heaven face
 I'm on the edge of something shattering
 I'm coming through
OK, let's fly she says this carpet's made for two
 This ugly little box no place for me and you
 Our carpet falls on a dew-fresh dappled plain
 Take a look around there's something happening
 All the colors fade

I don't want you now
 Bang bang bang gone
 Ooh I don't need you now
 The seeds are sown
 Ooh bang bang pretty pretty bang bang
 I don't think so no no
 I don't think so no no
 Bang bang
