

My Allied Ocean

Evergrey

This is for us.

In darkened waters, we must unit.

My allied ocean. My queen of death.

A sun explosion. It's manifest.

When darkness is falling. Want the world to burn.

The fire to spread, and there's nowhere to turn.

At the end of the road, I can't hold on.

Want this world to burn

This emptiness. My transience.

And it'll never stop. It's never silence.

My allied ocean. My life escape.

When darkness is falling. Want the world to burn.

The fire to spread, and there's nowhere to turn.

At the end of the road, I can't hold on.

Want this world to burn.

(Solo)

When darkness is falling. Want the world to burn.

The fire to spread, and there's no one to turn to.

At the end of the road, I can't hold on.

Want this world to burn.
