

War

Son Lux

We were at war
With walls and mazes
Torn up and tearing inside You wooed us out
To open places
Trading our death for your life You raised the sun
To warm our faces
Astonishing us with light We were at war
With walls and mazes
Torn up and tearing inside You wooed us out
To open places
You raised the sun
To warm our faces
Astonishing us with light
Astonishing us with light
Astonishing us with light
