

Slippin' Away

Bellamy Brothers

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Monday's promise is Tuesday's lie
Saturday's party is Sunday's fight
Somethin's wrong with you and I
Love's gone wrong that used to be right And I can feel it slippin' away
 Slowly, slowly slippin' away
 It'll be gone in a few more days
 If we don't stop this love of ours
From slippin' away Wednesday's kisses are Thursday's frowns
 We can't live two days in a row
 When our world's not upside down
Here we stand watchin' it go And I can feel it slippin' away
 Slowly, slowly slippin' away
 It'll be gone in a few more days
 If we don't stop this love of ours
From slippin' away Roses are red, violets are blue
 Sugar is sweet some of the time
 This puzzle's missin' a piece or two
We've got the grapes but never the wine And I can feel it slippin' away
 Slowly, slowly slippin' away
 It'll be gone in a few more days
 If we don't stop this love of ours
From slippin' away And I can feel it slippin' away
 Slowly, slowly slippin' away
 It'll be gone in a few more days
 If we don't stop this love of ours
From slippin' away And I can feel it slippin' away
 Slowly, slowly slippin' away
 It'll be gone in a few more days
 If we don't stop this love of ours
From slippin' away
