

Heaven Fell Last Night

The Browns

Heaven fell last night
and dropped an angel in my arms Heaven fell last night
and filled my heart with tender stormsThe rain came down and the sunshine shone And heaven placed in my embrace an angel all my ownHeaven fell last night and the moon bells fell to the ground And the Milky Way streamed cold and tinkled all around the air was sweet in the suns warm heat and horses sing and church bells ring And heaven was so completeHeaven fell last night and filled the world with peaceful charm Heaven fell last night
and dropped an angel in my arms
