Edge of Forever

Phobos

I lay back to rest my weary eyes
Dream of better days and of bluer skies
Safe inside my sleep I feel my soul scream
I would stay here forever if I could only dream...And the world keeps turning faster
Still I reach for the unknown
(Reach for the unknown)
For a handful of hope
On the Edge of Forever...Dust collects on my face once alive with a glow
It dulls the perception of life as we used to know
All I keep thinking is how will they cope?
When my time has come
Like dust into earth, without a trace
Does my body go setting me freeAnd the world keeps turning faster
Still I reach for the unknown
(Reach for the unknown)
For a handful of hope
On the Edge of Forever...Oceans of sand and their destiny
Alive in the waves of an endless sea
Some of us fall, some of us fly, most of us live to try
To reach the Edge of Forever...Oceans of sand and their destiny
Alive in the waves of an endless sea
Some of us fall, some of us fly, most of us live to try
To reach the Edge of Forever...
