

What I've Become

Ashlee Simpson

I walk alone inside these walls and it's not easy being me
Seems like every time I escape there's another following
Me, I'm running, now they're coming, I can feel them shooting me
Without asking lights are flashing but I guess that

It's what I've become

Let me live as who I am

Never wanted nothing

But you don't let me breathe as who I am

I've just begun, I've just begun

I've just begun to find my way

I've just begun, I've just begun

I've just begun to find my way

In the chase, I know I'm wanted, hey, look I'm no victim
It'd be nice to make some mistakes without observations
Or opinions of distortions, seeing what you're believing
It's a shame that all these blessings could be a curse?

It's what I've become

Let me live as who I am

Never wanted nothing

But you don't let me breathe as who I am

I've just begun, I've just begun

I've just begun to find my way

I've just begun, I've just begun

I've just begun to find my way

There's not a pill to take to save you from this heartache
But I have no regrets, I'm hoping for a better day
There's not a pill to take to save you from this heartache
But I have no regrets, I'm hoping for a better day

It's what I've become

Let me live as who I am

Never wanted nothing

But you don't let me breathe as who I am

It's what I've become

Let me live as who I am

Never wanted nothing

But you don't let me breathe as who I am

I've just begun, I've just begun

I've just begun to find my way

I've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my way
