Bells Are Ringing

Darling Parade

Sing out the bells are ringing.
Follow your heart that's beating.
Inside she's crying, can't stop denying.
I've got this feeling, running through my veins.
Can't stop this feeling, I'm starting to change.
Yeah, oh we're just fighting for our lives.I'm losing it tonight, it's a never ending fight.
Can't shake it off my mind.
I know I've got to stand up this time, and I'm dying just to find.
This part of me, that's trying to survive.What I know is that I'm getting so confused.
I need you right beside me, all the time.
I'm trying to reach you, caught up in concentrating.
I want this to be over, but sorting's so frustrating.
Yeah, oh we're just fighting for our lives.I'm losing it tonight, it's a never ending fight.
Can't shake it off my mind.
I know I've got to stand up this time, and I'm dying just to find.
This part of me, that's trying to survive.We are so alone, in this place.
And you can't make it on your own.
I can't deny it, you can't deny it.I'm losing it tonight, it's a never ending fight.
Can't shake it off my mind.
I know I've got to stand up this time, and I'm dying just to find.
This part of me that's trying to survive.Sing out the bells are ringing.
Follow your heart that's beating.
Sing out the bells are ringing.
Follow your heart that's beating.Inside she's crying, can't stop denying.
Inside she's crying, follow your heart that's beating.
