Destroyer Of Senses

3rd Strike

The sweet taste of self destruction
Waves of purity wash away the memories
I keep on falling off
I keep on falling off
The agents of change will dissolve
Into the fabric of our very existence
I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
Giver of life destroyer of senses

I invoke!, I invoke!
Giver of life destroyer of senses
I invoke!
Giver of life destroyer of senses
I invoke!
The sweet taste of self destruction
Waves of purity wash away the memories
I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
I keep on falling off of this straight and narrow line
The calm embrace of a sedated mind
