The Departed

Sully Erna

To think, beyond what you could think
And feel, beyond what you can feel
To see, beyond what can be seen
And be, beyond what we believeI know you know something
So many miles and miles awayIn separation we come together
It never ends change has just begun
Believing as we release the departed.To know what no one else could know
Away, into the unexplained
And see the soul beyond the body
The need to do it all again and again and againI know you know something
So many miles and miles away
Why can't we do better
As the line between begins to fadeIn separation we come together
It never ends, change has just begun
Believing as we release the departedIn separation we come together
It never ends change has just begun
Believing as we release the departed.Trying to be
Higher than I am
Trying to see
Beyond what I can
Trying to be
Higher than I am
Trying to see
Beyond what I canIn separation we come together
It never ends change has just begun
Believing as we release the departedIn separation we come together
It never ends change has just begun
Believing as we release the departedAs we release the departed
As we release the departed
As we release the departed
