

My TV and You

Vast

My TV and you, it's the only place to be
Nothing else to do, nothing else to see
A room without a view has so much for me and you
I was born to stare at stars on ceiling walls It's all I need, it's all I ever needed
Until the world is gone Take me how I am 'cause you know I'll never change
I was born to stare at who stares back at me
If I make it up to that big show in the sky
All I really want is my TV and you It's all I need, it's all I ever needed
Until the world is gone It's all I need, it's all I ever needed
Well, for life is gone
It's all I need, it's all I ever needed
Well, for life is gone
