Kickin And Screamin

Marques Houston

Marques Houston
Kickin' and screamin'
Said this is for the clubs
Said DJ turn it up
When I say I'm on my way she be happy than a motherfucker
Jumping in the shower to get cleaner than a motherfucker
When I hit the door she be grinnin' like a motherfucker
Panties hit the floor now we screamin' like a motherfucker
Then she know what's next, I'mma hit it like a motherfucker
She don't say my name, she say, "Baby, you that motherfucker"
She don't play no games, she serious than a motherfucker
But when I gotta leave she furious than a motherfucker
When I say I'm coming over she be kickin' and screamin'
When I'm off up in that thing she be kickin' and screamin'
When I say I gotta leave she be kickin' and screamin'
She be kickin' and screamin', got her kickin' and screamin'
She say that I'm so handsome, love when we romancing
If she can't get it than she quick to throw a tantrum
Niggas, put your hands up, this gon' be the anthem
Niggas, put your hands up, this gon' be the anthem
Every time she see me, she get so excited
She ain't gotta ask me, she know how I like it
Push me on the bed, love the way she ride it
She say she feel connected when I'm deep inside it
When I get that wet, wet, dripping like a faucet
She don't wanna stop so she get mad at herself
Say she wasn't ready to get off it
I'm like, "It's ok baby, 'cause that's gon' happen often"
When I say I'm coming over she be kickin' and screamin'
When I'm off up in that thing she be kickin' and screamin'
When I say I gotta leave she be kickin' and screamin'
She be kickin' and screamin', got her kickin' and screamin'
She say that I'm so handsome, love when we romancing
If she can't get it than she quick to throw a tantrum
Niggas, put your hands up, this gon' be the anthem
Niggas, put your hands up, this gon' be the anthem
Give me two glasses, order one bottle
Pop the cork, start to pour, sip it then swallow
If your game tight then you know what follows

Won't see the outside world 'til tomorrow
Mami real eager, beg me not to leave her
Pull her to the corner of the bed and eat her
Knock it out the park like I was Derek Jeter
Put her in the bed and then I'm like see ya
When I say I'm coming over she be kickin' and screamin'
When I'm off up in that thing she be kickin' and screamin'
When I say I gotta leave she be kickin' and screamin'
She be kickin' and screamin', got her kickin' and screamin'
She say that I'm so handsome, love when we romancing
If she can't get it than she quick to throw a tantrum
Niggas, put your hands up, this gon' be the anthem
This gon' be the anthem
(This gon' be the anthem)
