

On the Run

Natalie Imbruglia

I'm looking for a way
To calm these voices in my head
With all this mad confusion
I don't wanna leave this bed I'm on the run
I'm on the run again And I don't know which way is left
And there's no point in not being right
So I'll hold my breath
'Til the morning, 'til I see the light I'm on the run
I'm on the run again
From me I'm drowning in these feelings
And it's scaring me to death
Staring at the ceiling
So many things I could have said I'm on the run
I'm on the run again And I don't know which way is left
And there's no point in not being right
So I'll hold my breath
'Til the morning, 'til I see the light So, so many times
So many signs
You're out there waiting
I should have known you're out there waiting, ooh And I don't know which way is left
And there's no point in not being right
So I'll hold my breath
'Til the morning, 'til I see the light I'm on the run
I'm on the run again
From me

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>