

Supernatural

Slightly Stoopid

Supernatural woman, give me the right
She was supernatural, believe the power
She make it shower, wash away the sorrow
We can make love to the rhythm she show
We can make love to the rhythm for sho
So supernatural, believe the power
She make it shower, wash away the sorrow
We can make love to the rhythm she show
You can make war when you seek the temple
Ahhh, Ahhh x4
She gives you no warning that she's desired
To keep the boys warm and don't start the fire
She will know what you're seeking and your dreams will find you
She gives you no warning so you will follow
The gift that you give me is the gift that I will have to remain
In your arms for always
To listen to the wind will make you pray she might be speaking your name
You know you might not hear it again
I feel fretful after waiting but the weather it won't answer to me
Will she ever hear me sing
Sneak me in the place and together we go naturally
She could change a warrior's ways
So supernatural, believe the power
She make it shower, wash away the sorrow
We can make love to the rhythm she show
We can make love to the rhythm fo show
So supernatural, believe the power
Hand that I need to touch, she's so beautiful
Need her body oh, supernatural
She could make you oh!
So when she speak it's spiritual
Even to the criminal
Words that could buckle bros , so that'll they come in numbers
So we get physical hit me now I'm ready fool, can't no more muscle
Protect me from the trouble
We bleed this chemical
Break it down to the mother
I bomb my future
You always know how to keep me in your desire

So see, supernatural she become invisible
The real-ities you will never see

Every single day I'm not feeling right
So won't you give me Power
Oh why can't you see
You're love is all I breathe, all I need
So come and break to me the messy pieces
Of the mystery in your name
Give to me the energy
Whispering the many secrets of the place
you know your treasures await
Is this another game that you play
I will break and enter in no matter danger
I will have to obey
She can put a spell on me
When I slip and wrap around with no one blitzing for me
Showers on me.. grasses grow around ...again

So supernatural, believe the power
She make it shower, wash away the sorrow
We can make love to the rhythm she show
We can make love to the rhythm for sho
So supernatural, believe the power
She make it shower, wash away the sorrow
We can make love to the rhythm she show
You can make war when you seek the temple
She gives you the warning that's she's desired
Keeps the boys warm and don't start the fire
She will know what you're seeking and your dreams will find you
She gives you no warning so you will follow
She gives you the warning that's she's desired
Keeps the boys warm and don't start the fire
She will know what you're seeking and your dreams will find you
She gives you no warning so you will follow
