

Truthfully

Lisa Loeb

This isn't what I like to call flattery
But I know that I believe
That I've found what's true
That I've found what's you Truthfully I am finding finally Truthfully you, you helped me find at last
Truthfully we are finding out what's true
An' truthfully I am finding out what's you Surprise, 'cause I was flying the plane
Surprise, 'cause now I'm smiling again
Surprise, 'cause you showed up with your parachute
Surprise, I'm kind of happy that you showed up Truthfully I am finding finally Truthfully you, you helped me find at last
Truthfully we are finding out what's true
An' truthfully I am finding out what's you Truthfully, I really can't explain
I'm floating, I'm smiling again
Truthfully, I can't ignore you
'Cause I've been waiting for you Truthfully, I'm not desperate
I haven't changed my mind since we first met
But the last thing that I want to do
Is to tell you that I'm right for you Truthfully I am finding finally Truthfully you, you helped me find at last
Truthfully we are finding out what's true
An' truthfully I am finding out what's you I'm finding finally Truthfully you, I'm finding out what's you
I'm smiling again, truthfully, truthfully
