

Today and Everyday (Wedding Song)

Vanessa Williams

Today and everyday, I am yours for all time
Today and everyday, like a miracle, baby, you are mine
And though the winds may blow us far, far away
Don't you forget my promise, listen to what I say
I am yours today and everyday I remember we were miles and miles apart
When you confessed your heart
Telephone in hand, lying in some [Incomprehensible] hotel bed
Precious words I heard, precious words you said Today and everyday, I am yours for all time
Today and everyday, like a miracle, baby, you are mine
And though the winds may blow us far, far away
Don't you forget my promise, listen to what I say
I am yours today and everyday I remember I was standing next to you when our love was new
Could not believe my luck must be a blessing directly from above
Little did I know that you would wanna hear these words about
The words that you were speaking to me now
