Ugly Dogs

Antighost

You come alive behind closed doors
Youâ€™ve got a problem you canâ€™t ignore
So drive your car, light a cigarette
Too young to die, too old to regret

Youâ€™re tired bloodshot eyes
Rip through my insides every time
Be thankful youâ€™re alive
Lifeâ€™s far worse when you have to hide

Blood runs from your pulsing soars
Soaks into your open pores
Your hair fell out onto your plate
You canâ€™t believe what you just ate

Youâ€™re vicious, terrified,
Here and gone at the same time
Your kisses, like drive-bys
I hate it when you say goodbye

Hammer in the rest of your nails
Load the ships and set the sails
You canâ€™t hide inside the cold
Will find itâ€™s way into your bones
Woah

I guess this is goodbye
I told myself I wouldnâ€™t cry
She screams hold me as we lie
I love it when you say goodnight
