Lookin' Better Every Beer

Stray Cats

I saved a place in my heart
For your warm sweet embrace
I saved a place by my side for you
And your farewell, just for the record, sounded so sincere
And the girl on my left, is lookin' better every beerI've done my time, I paid my dues
Just to see the skies of blue
It's just as hard being lonelyAs it is to be with you
And when you parted
You just knew I'd drown in my own tears
And the girl on my left, is lookin' better every beerI've given up feeling sorry for myself
I've still some pride left me
And I'll find someone else
