Surprise Surprise

Tree63

Surprise surprise
I've had such a hard time
Was trying to keep my promises
The things I say, I just don't do
I need some rescue from myselfA thousand times, a thousand lies
I just don't understand
Do You believe me anymore?I cannot cross this great divide
Without Your hand, surprise surprise
And all Your wonders never cease
To amaze me, even meI get so nervous, I get so tongue-tied
When I'm around You, my love
You see straight through me
My words are empty
But You still believe my promisesMouthful of fire, I speak desire
And deceitful things
I don't believe me anymoreI cannot cross this great divide
Without Your hand, surprise surprise
And all Your wonders never cease
To amaze me, even meA thousand times, a thousand lies
I just don't understand
I don't believe me
