Took the Fun

The Twang

You took the fun, don't think it's yours to keep
I'm coming back to get what's mine
The trolley of life is full with nothing that I like
So bring it 'round some other timeI'm lost in another story spinning in my head
I've been here too many times
I need a clear view, some open space
So I can find peace of mindAnd I know I'll be fine if you let be
And I know I'll be alright if you set me free
And I might come back to you that I'll see though
But the shackles that you know I've broken free ofYou've been asking questions
For arguments sake
And no decision made was mine
Well, one day we'll seeThat this is all a mistake
Even though it felt right at the time
And now I can't stop thinking about those better days
The days when your love sent me blind
Now I need a clear view some open space
So I can find peace of mindAnd I know I'll be fine if you let be
And I know I'll be alright if you set me free
And I might come back to you that I'll see though
But the shackles that you know I've broken free ofLa, la, la, la, oh

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/