

Great Expectations (live)

Porcupine Tree

A summer day
In garlands I feel secure
A useless faith
That I will get you, somehow Reach out, I wonder where you are now Hey, there's you
With placid eyes
Oblivious to what's to come They locked you up
So I forgot you
Forgot your name, so strange
I wonder if you got out
