i don't know
why i thought i could do this
for so long
all these rooms
feel so hollow without you should i stay
i should find my own home
it's been so long
and you won't stay
if you see me fall
would i go
i feel so at home
don't wanna come back
and you should know if i could bring all the ones i love i would ooohhh
should i stay
i should find my home
it's been so long
and you won't stay
End
