

10:37

Beach House

Chances are
Like night disappeared
Caught in the atmosphere
Where you go, she casts no shadow
Still you know she's near
Lie Here she comes, all parts of everything
Stars in the motherhand
With the dark, thunder above you
Come to a song, we
Lie Chances are Ten, thirty seven
House made of the dawn
Disappears
Lie
