Who Am I To You

Schuyler Fisk

Quiet lies beneath the blue moon
Couldnt say much less now could you?
Its on your mind
Its in your eyes
But you disguise it youre so childish (or Charming)If its not me you need
To sleep beside
If Im not the thought thats always on your mind
If Im not the reason why you dream about (or at night)
The love youll never lose
Then who am I to you?Im awake but your still sleeping
Not some secret youve been keeping
You hardly see (or youre hard to see)
Missed a green
Soon the sun will come and save me (or to save you)If its not me you need to sleep beside
If Im no the love thats always on your mind
If not the reason you why dream about (or at night)
The love youll never lose
Who am I to you?I was here lying down (or I feel locked out)
My head so conflicted
Everything I am
Im contradicted
Im so caught up
I cant let you go
I need to know
I need to knowIf its not me you need to sleep beside
If Im not the thought thats always on your mind
If its not me you need to sleep beside
If Im no the love thats always on your mind
If Im no the reason why you dream at night about the love youll never loose
Then who am I to youWho am I to you?
