

New Ocean

Jake Bellows

Iâ€™m lookinâ€™ for the one;
a path into the hills;
another setting sun;
the power without the will.

And we can fall into the new ocean

Make ready, all the boats.
The valleyâ€™s filling up.
Letâ€™s lower down the ropes and let our brothers in.

And we can fall into the new ocean.
With all you do are you already sunk?

Here we come,
Here we come,
Here we comeâ€™”

Tied a ribbon around the star
so it wonâ€™t forget my wish to never be so far.
Give my body to the fish so they donâ€™t starve.

And we can fall into the new ocean;
and where are you, my darling bornâ€™”?

Here we come
Here we come
Here we comeâ€™”

Here we come
Here we come
