Want You Back

ê¸€ Œì²´í•¬

Last night, I saw you the first time since we broke up
I tell you baby it all came back to me
When I looked into your eyes there was something more
That I never really noticed before, could it be?
That's no long, and I was so wrong
When I realized and turned around that you and I
If I say I want you back
Would you turn around and say you want me too
'Cause I say I want you back
This time I really mean it
It hurts so much, I want to tell you I changed for you
But I don't know what to say or do
We grew apart but I still want you in my heart
I believe it's time to make a new start, could it be?
That's no long, and I was so wrong
When I realized and turned around and you were gone
If I say I want you back
Would you turn around and say you want me too
'Cause I say I want you back
This time I really mean it
It's a thing, I want you, I want you back
Will you turn around and walk away
From me, it's a shame
I want you back with me, believe

If I say I want you back
Would you turn around and say you want me too
'Cause I say I want you back
This time I really mean it
And if I say I want you back
(I want you back)
And if you say you want me too
(Do you really want me too?)
And if I say I want you back
(I want you back)
And if you say you want me too
(Do you want me too?)
And if I say I want you back
(Want you back)

And if you say you want me too
(I need you by my side)
And if I say I want you back
(I want you back)
And if you say you want me too
(Do you want me too?)
And if I say I want you back
(Baby, I want you baby)
And if you say you want me too
(I want you too, I want you baby, do you want me too?)
