

Takes One to Know One

Calyx & Teebee

You think you know it all but you don't know me
And that's all you'll ever know
You think you have it all but you don't have me
And that's all you'll ever
You think you get it all but you don't get me
And that's all that you'll ever get
You talk about lies and hypocrisy
Well, it takes one to know one
You think you're hanging on but you won't let go
You look down, struck by vertigo
Oblivious to what you left behind
Looking in the corridors of your mind
Haunted by the things you didn't do
Trouble always seems to follow you
You think you're immune to what you've become
Well, it takes one to know one
You think you know it all but you don't know me
And that's all you'll ever know
You think you have it all but you don't have me
And that's all you'll ever
You think you get it all but you don't get me
And that's all you'll ever get
You talk about lies and hypocrisy
Well, it takes one to know one
Well, it takes one to know one
Well, it takes one to know one
You think you know it all but you don't know me
You think you have it all but you don't have me
You think you get it all but you don't get me
And that's all that you'll ever get
You think you know it all but you don't know me
And that's all you'll ever know
You think you have it all but you don't have me
And that's all you'll ever
You think you get it all but you don't get me
And that's all you'll ever get
You talk about lies and hypocrisy
Well, it takes one to know one
Well, it takes one to know one
Well, it takes one to know one
