So Was I

Spensha Baker

It's as simple as a whisper
Quietly I know you're there
Seems ridiculous to find myself
Right back here again

Today's as good as any
Lord to mend my broken heart
I said I'd never let it happen
See I'm too strong to fall apart

I'm not proud of every choice I've made
Or all that I have done
But Lord you know in this one thing
I'm innocent of wrong

So was I
Innocent of any crime
Crucified for all mankind
Oh Lord, all alone

So was I
Died for things I did not do
Gave my very life for you
Oh Lord, all alone

As you're sitting there
Remember, so was I

Broken promises surround me
So called friends just walk away
So unjustifiably accuse me
Repeating words of all hearsay

Today's as good a day as any
In order to mend my broken heart
I said I'd never let it happen
See I'm too strong to fall apart

I'm not proud of every choice I've made
Or all that I have done

But Lord you know in this one thing
I'm innocent of wrong

So was I
Innocent of any crime
Crucified for all mankind
Oh Lord, all alone

So was I
He died for things He did not do
Gave His very life for you

Oh Lord, all alone
Alone
All alone
Alone
All alone

As you're sitting there
Remember, think about Jesus
Remember
So was I

(Oh yeah)
