

One Woman Man

Koauka

yes girl, i'll love you for the rest of my life thats why i wanted you to be my wife just someone i could love unconditionally right until the end of eternity this loving that we have will never stop as long as you believe in what we got all the love it takes we be keepin it real just let me tell you how i really feel might as well face it, were in this love together and nothings going to stop us now girl we will always be forever we might as well face it through thick and thin is what we said, on the twentyth day of november its a moment ill always remember when i looked into your eyes and said i do from that moment on girl i knew it was just you and me were loving it up unto extremes because girl your keepin it real you make my life complete

cause im a one woman man im always going to be your guy im never going to leave your side girl yes im always going to be your guy my babe

im never going to leave your side im always going to be your guy, girl yes im never going to leave your side my babe i was in the right place at the right time that sunday july afternoon just cruisin down the coastline listenin to some reggae tunes yes i listen to you singin to me about just how beautiful this world would be if people would just live in sweet harmony sharin the lovin just like you and me

im never going to leave your side girl yes im always going to be your guy my babe

im never going to leave your side darling said girl ill love you til the end of time said girl even when the stars dont shine said girl ill love you til the end of time girl im going to make you mine baby take a listen to this your one of a kind the way you make me do this you make my body do flips so lets get together so we can do this girl when i looked into your eyes and said i do from that moment on girl i knew it would be just you and me we loving it up onto extreme because girl you keepin it real

im never going to leave your side girl yes

im never going to leave your side girl yes

im never going to leave your side my darling

im never going to leave your side girl yes
