

Victim

Kobra and the Lotus

I don't get it, the way you're wearing your pride around your knees
You're always finding another reason to trigger and releaseAnd blame
 Blame anybody but yourself for your mistakes
 Why won't you awaken, awaken!
Open up your eyes and see thatLife! is all you get!
 And there's no coming back
 Why would you live it like it's a renegade?
 Throwing it all away
 You're a reject (total misfit)
Feel like a defect but you're no different from anyone else
 There's no place here for all your anger
 Stop feeling sorry for yourselfDon't blame
Don't blame this good good life for throwing shit in your face
 Why won't you awaken, awaken!
Open up your eyes and see thatLife! is all you get!
 And there's no coming back
 Why would you live it like it's a renegade?
 Throwing it all away
 Throwing it all away
 Life! is all you get!
 And there's no coming back
 Why would you live it like it's a renegade?
 Your life is all you get!
 There are no second chances
So, why would you live it like it's a renegade?
 Throwing it all away
 Throwing it all away
 You're throwing it all away
