

Where All Good Sleep

Evergrey

In depths so deep I can't believe
Confusion conquers and frustration wins
 Into where light does not reach
This is where pain and sorrow meets
 Into denial
 Baptized into a liar
 Would you give me the power
Would you, could you
 Caught in a world where angels weep
 Where hatred battles greed and frustration wins
 Chained to a world where all good sleep
This is where pain and sorrow meets
 Into denial
 Baptized into a liar
 Would you give me the power
Could you, would you
 I'm doubting still denying
 The truth was more than shocking
I'm doubting, I'm hiding, hiding
 I'm running knowing they're watching
 I'm still in disbelief from what I've seen
 Where I'm hiding, hiding
 Baptized into a liar
 Would you give me the power
Could you, would you
 Could you, would you
 I said, could you, would you
I said, could you, would you
 Could you, would you
 Could you, would you
